

The Walking Theatre Company – Friday 15th July. 7.30pm at Maizey Lodge

'An Inconvenient Wedding' sees the audience become guests at a royal wedding between two rival kingdoms - complete with murder, revenge, and a truly awful wedded wife! This comedic Murder Mystery original is "guided" by the Father of the bride who will see the audiences through the story as they play a key part in the action as it unfolds around them. In the end, the guests have to try to solve the mystery and capture the culprit who is trying to keep the lovebirds from their happy ever-after!

If you wish to dress up as a wedding guest, feel free!
